

BUSE-C522 Financial Management

Brief Info

School of Business, Indiana University Southeast

Instructor and Contact Information

Name: Yan He

Yan He's Professional Website

Phone: 812-941-2308

Email: Canvas Inbox (preferred); IU email

Zoom: Zoom Link (in the left navigation bar of Canvas course site)

Office hours: see the syllabus of a specific semester. Zoom meeting (or office meeting) is by appointment.

Course Status, Prerequisites, and Description

Course status: MBA and MSSF Required (Graduate)

Course prerequisites: see MBA and MSSF requirements

Suggestions from the instructor

Please take BUSE-F502 (or BUS-F301) before this course.

In case your background is overqualified, see Yan He's Professional Website \(Courses\) for relevant certification exams and other situations.

Course description

IUS bulletin (BUSE-E594): A study of the theory and practice of corporate finance. Areas studied include organizing capital expenditure, planning dividend policy and capital structure strategies, making short-term financial decisions, mergers, pension plans, and the international aspect of corporate finance.

Texts

Textbook: Intermediate Financial Management, by Eugene Brigham and Phillip Daves.
Edition: see the syllabus of a specific semester.

Course Outline

T00 Welcome and Course Introduction

T01 Bond, Stock, and Capital

T02 Capital Budgeting: CFs & Criteria

T03 Capital Budgeting: Real Options

T04 Capital Structure: Debt vs. Equity

T05 Capital Structure: Tactical Debt

T06 Distributions to Shareholders

T07 Working Capital Management

T08 M&A

T09 Pension Plan Management

T10 Multinational Financial Management (for your reference)