

BUS-F302 Financial Decision Making

Brief Info

School of Business, Indiana University Southeast

Instructor and Contact Information

Name: Yan He

Yan He's Professional Website

Phone: 812-941-2308

Email: Canvas Inbox (preferred); IU email

Zoom: Zoom Link (in the left navigation bar of Canvas course site)

Office hours: see the syllabus of a specific semester. Zoom meeting (or office meeting) is by appointment.

Course Status, Prerequisites, and Description

Course status

Finance Required (Undergraduate)

Course prerequisites

BUS-F301 and ECON-E270 (required); BUS-A310 (recommended)

In case your background is overqualified, see Yan He's Professional Website \(Courses\) for relevant certification exams and other situations.

Course description

IUS bulletin (BUS-F302): Application of financial theory and techniques of analysis in the search for optimal solutions to financial management problems.

Please note that the course covers various financial decisions from the perspective of a financial manager in a company.

Texts

Textbook: Applied Corporate Finance, by Damodaran. Edition: see the syllabus of a specific semester.

Course Outline

- T00 Welcome and Course Introduction
- T01 The Objective
- T02 Hurdle Rates
- T03 Investment Decisions-The Mechanics
- T04 Investment Decisions-Other Issues
- T05 Financing Decisions-Optimal Capital Structure
- T06 Financing Decisions-Financing Details
- T07 Dividend Decisions
- T08 Financial Planning & Forecasting
- T09 Corporate Valuation
- T10 Working Capital (for your reference)